

Open LMS Site Administration: Essentials

About This Course

This course will help you not only configure your site, but also on how to become an effective and efficient site administrator for the long haul. In this course, written by experienced Moodle/Blackboard open LMS site administrators, you will find tricks, tips, and recommendations guaranteed to make your transition into the administrator role, or from another LMS, a success. With topics aligning to each area of Moodle site administration, you will learn about managing users and courses, configuring your site for optimum security, usability, reliability, and more!

Who Can Benefit From This Course

- Site administrators who are new to Moodle/Blackboard Open LMS or those would like to learn more site settings and configuration.
- Site administrators who would like to learn about using Conduit for user and course creation and enrollments

What You Will Learn

- Navigate through a Moodle and Blackboard Open LMS site.
- Use the Site Administration area.
- Configure settings for users, course management settings, grade settings, location settings, language settings, and plugins for site-wide use.
- Configure appearance and theme settings.
- Configure system security.
- Configure the Front Page for your site.
- Configure server settings.
- Understand the functionalities of development and choose appropriate configurations.
- Run Moodle and Open reports at the site level.
- Load critical information quickly from an existing SIS, ERP, or other learning databases into Moodle using Conduit.

What to Expect

- Facilitation: This course is facilitated by an instructor.
- Delivery method: This course is an online, asynchronous, self-paced course.
- Enrollment duration: 75 days
- Time commitment: 15-20 hours